Football team makes move to districts

Panthers to see some new faces, places for 2015 season

By JIM LUTGENS
Editor/Publisher

It looks to be a wide open fall for the NRHEG High School football team.

After years of competing in in the Gopher-Valley Conference, the Panthers enter the era of district play. Conferences are no more. District champions will be crowned.

For NRHEG coach Dan Stork, it's a good news, bad news situation.

"It's kind of exciting to play some different teams we haven't played before, and it's also nice to keep some of our rivalries, like Waterville and Maple River," said Stork. "On the other hand, it's a little frustrating with the amount of travel involved."

The Panthers and their fans will definitely see some new faces and places in district play, starting with last week's season opener at Mayer Lutheran.

NRHEG will compete in the South Central District's Blue Division, which includes Mayer Lutheran, Lester Prairie/Holy Trinity, LeSueur-Henderson, Sibley East, Norwood-Young America, Waterville-Elysian-Morristown, Maple River, Gibbon-Fairfax-Winthrop and Lake Crystal-Wellcome Memorial. The rest of the South Central District includes Albert Lea, Belle Plaine, Blue Earth Area, Fairmont, Jackson County Central, Jordan, Luverne, Marshall, Martin County West, New Ulm, Pipestone, Redwood Valley, St. James, St. Peter, Tri-City United, Windom and Worthington.

Stork

Schultz

Stork is starting his 13th season as the Panthers' head coach, assisted by longtime defensive coordinator John Schultz along with Grant Berg, Drew Paukert and Ryan Tri.

The Panthers, 3-6 overall and 2-3 in conference play, graduated several key players, including quarterback Trevor Tracy, who threw for 1,075 yards and accounted for 10 touchdowns a year ago. Leading receiver Spencer Tollefson, who had 554 receiving yards and five touchdowns, also graduated, as did leading tackler and fellow all-conference selection Nick Bartness and two-way lineman Keith Maxon.

Leading the 2015 Panthers are senior captains Zeke Erickson, Wyatt Fitterer and Trey Hoppe, who earned honorable mention all-conference honors last year. Erickson and Fitterer are two-year starters on both sides of the line. Hoppe led NRHEG with 577 rushing yards and six touchdowns last year.

Junior Jack Schultz, a two-year starter on the line, also received honorable mention all-conference honors last year.

The other returning letter winners are senior John Cole (WR/DB), Palmer Peterson (QB/FS), Lucas Hermann (G/DE), Trai Wicks (WR/CB), Jon Weller (C/DE), Karter Sletten (TE/LB), and juniors Jason Jongbloedt (RB/CB) and Chad Agrimson (TE/DE/P).

The rest of the roster includes juniors Sam Prigge, Carter Fischer, Noah Sletten, Gunther Olson and Joe Jensen, sophomores Benji Lundberg, Cole

NRHEG spikers hope to compete with BA

Large senior group leads 2015 Panther volleyball squad

By JIM LUTGENS
Editor/Publisher

The NRHEG High School volleyball team just has not been the same since Carlie Wagner graduated.

No, wait. That's girls' basketball.

But, come to think of it, the volleyball Panthers also missed Carlie in her first year at the University of Minnesota last fall.

The 2014 Panthers finished 8-16-2 overall in Onika Peterson's second season as the varsity head coach, including 1-5 in Gopher Conference play. Peterson is back and again assisted by veterans Jackie Schultz and Corrine Schuller.

The Panthers graduated a plethora of players who provided a great deal for last year's squad. Included were Anna Stork (116 kills, 19 ace blocks), Ryann Hagen (109 kills, 24 ace blocks), Alyssa Esplan (94 percent serving, 210 digs), Remi Wayne, (94 percent serving, 51 digs), Cassidy Sletten (34 kills) and Sami Pettey.

Peterson

The 2015 edition of the Panthers is highlighted by a strong senior class and some excellent athletic ability including Carlie's twin sisters, Maddie and Marnie, now juniors.

Returning letter winners include seniors Abby Wacholz (90 kills, 31 ace blocks, 44 digs), Anna Lundberg (257 set assists, 102 digs), Hailey Schuller (160 set assists, 39 digs), Sophia Fischer and Abby Christopherson, and juniors Rachel Collins (64 set assists, 25 digs), Maddie Wagner (120 kills, 17 ace blocks, 151 digs) and Marnie Wagner (120 kills, 13 ace blocks, 199 digs).

Other varsity hopefuls are Emily Eder, Kayley Camerer, Aubrey Schlinger, Maci Surat, Natalie Aaseth, Grace Johns, Gretchen Ramaker and Corrie Powell.

The Panthers open the season tonight, hosting Alden-Conger in a 7:30 p.m. nonconference match. It's the last chance you'll have to see the Panthers on their home floor until Sept. 17, when they host Medford. After the opener the Panthers travel to Nicollet, Kenyon, Mapleton and LeSueur.

What does Coach Peterson expect to see?

"We hope to be in the top half of the Gopher Conference," she said. "Our conference is extremely tough, so we hope to be competitive and get stronger throughout the season."

Perennial state power Bethlehem Academy is again the favorite to win the Gopher Conference, with WEM also expected to be tough.

In the section, Belle Plaine and WEM are tagged as the top teams.

Peterson feels good about the Panthers' varsity experience and the senior class.

"We have a large incoming senior class," she said. "It will be up to them to dictate what they want to get out of the season."

The coach's biggest concern is having to compete with the likes of BA and WEM, schools with athletes who play volleyball year-round.

"Our weakness is a lack of volleyball skill compared to some of the powerhouse teams in the Gopher Conference who play year-round," she said. "We hope to make up for this by hard work and effort."

The key to success for the 2015 Panthers?

Said Peterson: "Having strong leadership and improving throughout the season."

Schlaak, Lewer lead CC squads

Tomsche

Weber

By JIM LUTGENS
Editor/Publisher

Almost every year, it seems as if the NRHEG cross country teams are mostly young, inexperienced and looking for talent.

In that respect, this year is no different.

On the other hand, seventh-year head coach Mike Weber is downright optimistic about the boys' squad, which did not graduate anyone from last year.

"Finally," said Weber, "we should have some newer faces coming out this year who will contribute."

Weber knows what he has in senior Tyler Schlaak, the Panthers' Most Valuable Runner last year, and fellow seniors and letter winners Zach Mely and Aaron Seath. Mely won the team's Panther Award last year.

Also back is sophomore letterman Ben Lewer.

The other varsity candidates are junior Josh Fleming, sophomores Braden Routh and Orin Mely, freshman Aaron Fleming and seventh-grader Daniel Nydegger.

They're looking to improve on last year's finish of eighth in the Gopher-Valley Conference meet and 19th in the section.

"We have a very experienced boys' lineup returning from last year," said Weber. "Tyler Schlaak had a great rookie season in 2014 and we expect big things from him in 2015. Josh Fleming and Zach Mely are going to push him during the season, as they had in 2014. Aaron Seath and Ben Lewer are a couple more veterans who will help with team points."

Weber picks Martin County West, Mankato Loyola and United South Central as the teams to beat in the conference this year. He likes Martin County West, Belle Plaine and Waseca in the section.

The NRHEG girls graduated Most Valuable Runner Sandra Quezada and Panther Award winner Melissa Malakowsky from last year's squad that finished ninth in the conference and 18th at section.

"Our two seniors will be dearly missed," said Weber. "They have been the core of our program over the last several years."

Fortunately, the Panthers have someone who has contributed for several years in senior Katharine Lewer, the Panthers' Most Dedicated Runner and a team captain in 2014.

Unfortunately, she's the only returning varsity runner.

"Katharine has been the mainstay of the program the past five years," said Weber. "She has been an all-conference runner and captain. Katharine has shown great leadership through the years. The strength of our team will rely on the younger runners, who could fill the varsity roster. Our junior high runners had a successful campaign in 2014."

Girls out for the team so far include Lewer and eighth-graders Destiny Medrano, Maddie Bartlett, Mia Williams and Skylar Lembke.

Weber is guessing Mankato Loyola/Cleveland, Martin County West and United South Central will top the conference. He likes Waseca and Belle Plaine in the section.

The Panthers open the season today at Fairmont. Their lone home meet is Sept. 22 against JWP/WEM at Riverview Golf Course.

How does Stork hope to fair this fall?

"We obviously want to improve on our 3-6 record, and I feel confident that we can do that," he said. "Our goal is to compete for a district title."

The Panthers' definite strength, according to Stork, is on the offensive and defensive lines.

"We are very experienced up there and we have great size and speed up front," said the coach. "We have depth in our backfield and our kids have been working very hard at improving."

Stork's biggest concern is depth.

"We're thin at a number of positions," he said. "We need to stay healthy, and we need to have some young players step it up."

Stork said Schultz and Erickson attended offseason camps and several Panthers hit the weight room hard this summer.

"We held our own team camp in July and the guys looked pretty sharp," said Stork.

Stork pegged WEM and Maple River as the district favorites, and Blue Earth Area and WEM in Section 2AA.

The Panthers' home opener is Friday, when they'll host Lester Prairie/Holy Trinity at 7 p.m. The following Friday they play at Waterville. Homecoming is Sept. 25 against LeSueur-Henderson.
